

THE IMPORTANCE OF A MISSIONAL HEART

BY TODD MORR

WWW.MISSIONALMADESIMPLE.COM

THE IMPORTANCE OF A MISSIONAL HEART

- A Missional Heart = God's heart for lost people. Broken. Compassionate. Weeping.
- A Missional Person = Fisher of men and women. Always fishing. Sent to heal and restore.
- A Missional Community = Family of disciples working together with a unified purpose to love the lost and proclaim Jesus.
- A Missional Church = A church family that sees everything as mission and every place as a mission field, from Monday to Saturday.

MISSIONAL HEART

a heart of conviction, passion, and brokenness for the lost and is given and sustained by God and the Gospel. A Missional Heart leads to a...

MISSIONAL PERSON

a person who has an intentional lifestyle of Mission and orients their time and resources around influencing lost people. A Missional Person leads to a....

MISSIONAL COMMUNITY

a group of Missional People that have a strategic plan around living a Missional life together as a Family on Mission. A Missional Community leads to a...

MISSIONAL CHURCH

a church with a growing number of Missional Communities and is regularly experiencing the Missional fruit of transformed lives.

Missional = Frequent contact through meals, parties, play dates, school activities, hobbies, work, etc. Leads to...

- Focused prayer for the non-Christians involved in those relational spaces.
Leads to...
- Relationships growing from "acquaintance" to "trusted friendship."
Leads to...
- Increased opportunities to tangibly demonstrate the Gospel through radical love and generosity.
Leads to...
- Increased opportunities for deep, vulnerable conversations about the big questions of life and spirituality.
Leads to...
- Proclamation of Jesus as the healer and restorer of all broken, lost, and lonely things.

